

Dr. Jennifer Evans was born and raised in Steamboat Springs, CO. She attended the University of Colorado in Colorado Springs to obtain her bachelor's degree. Dr. Evans moved to Parker, CO where she completed her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree. Dr. Evans completed her diagnostic radiology training at Grandview/Kettering Medical Center in Ohio. She concluded her training at the Mayo Clinic with a fellowship in musculoskeletal imaging.

After years of being away for medical training, Dr. Evans and her family are happy to be back in Fort Collins. She is married to an ER physician with a 2 1/2 year old boy and another son expected in August 2021. When Dr. Evans is not working, she enjoys hiking, snowboarding, painting, baking delicious desserts, and spending time with family.
