

Dr. Danielle Gallegos was born and raised in Colorado. She attended the University of Colorado in Boulder to obtain her bachelor's degree. Dr. Gallegos was able to stay in the great state of Colorado to complete her medical degree from the University of Colorado in Aurora, followed by a general surgery intern year at St. Joseph Hospital in Denver. Dr. Gallegos moved to Tennessee where she completed her postgraduate training with a diagnostic radiology residency and body imaging fellowship at Vanderbilt University Medical Center in Nashville.

Professionally, Dr. Gallegos' areas of interest include Body Imaging and image-guided procedures. When she is not working, Dr. Gallegos enjoys hiking, yoga, and spending time with her son. She is excited to be back home in Colorado!
